

The Princess and the Bunny

Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess named Vanessa. Vanessa had a lot of beautiful dresses; she had a pink one, a blue one, a yellow one, a green one, and a purple one. They all had colourful sparkles on them. One day when Vanessa was walking in the garden, she saw a little white bunny, so she picked it up carefully and said, "What's your name?"

The bunny said, "My name is Ruby. What's yours?"

"My name is Vanessa, want to play with me?" Vanessa asked.

"Okay, let's play tag. Come on, you're it!"

They played tag all day.

After a while Vanessa said, "It's getting dark, I better get home for supper."

"Will you play with me tomorrow?" asked Ruby.

"Sure," said Vanessa, "When should we play tomorrow?"

"We will meet at noon," Ruby said.

"Okay, bye-bye!"

The next day at breakfast Vanessa told her mom about the bunny named Ruby. Vanessa's mom thought that it was ridiculous; "There is no such thing as a talking bunny," her mom said.

"Yes there is, I'll show you tomorrow."

Vanessa went and played with Ruby and then it started to get dark.

"My mom doesn't believe you are real, so we will meet you here at noon tomorrow. You should bring your mom, too."

"But I do not have a mom," said Ruby.

"Oh, well you can live with me then. My mom will be your mom and then we will be best friends forever."

The next day Vanessa told her mom that she had invited Ruby to live with them. They had breakfast, and then went to the garden. Vanessa's mom saw the bunny and said 'Hi', and Ruby said 'Hi'.

"Wow!" Vanessa's mom exclaimed.

Then they all went to the palace and lived happily ever after.
