

Adventure for the Treasure

It all started with nine kids playing.

Dillon said, "I want an adventure."

Stormy said, "I could beat you on an adventure."

Andy said, "I bet I could beat you all on an adventure."

"I call James and Kris," said Dillon.

"I want Heather and Eva."

"Yes! I get Diven and Tyler. I know what: we should look for treasure in Mount Coranet. Okay, let's go!"

"Ha, ha, ha, we got a head start." said James."

"We better get going," said Tyler.

Kris, Dillon and James set a trap.

"Oh no!" said Diven.

"Ha, ha, ha, to you guys," said Eva.

They set another trap. The girls ran into the trap.

"Oh darn, I hate those boys," said Eva.

"All right," said Kris, "we've made it to Mt. Coranet! There's a dog with a broken leg. I will help you out. Come on James, they're catching up," Kris said.

"I'll carry him, since he's small. Okay, let's go."

"Which way should we go?" James asked.

Meanwhile with the girls, "The boys went into Mt. Coranet." Meanwhile with the other boys, "I love the shortcut, Diven. I see the other boys and they've got the treasure!"

They were racing back. "They've got the treasure!" said Heather.

"We're rich!" said Dillon, James and Kris.
